

Intra Class Activity – Step Z – Solo Dance – Class VI

26th December, 2014: An Intra Class solo dance competition was conducted for the students of Class VI as an activity. Five students from each section took part in the competition. Children presented a variety of dances – folk, hiphop, classical etc. Children had worn suitable costumes as required for their song. The students were judged on their coordination, expressions and costumes. Each student performed 2 to 3 minutes. It was a memorable Performance.

Workshop on Table Manners

24th December, 2014: "Manners make a man". Keeping this ideology in mind workshop on Table Manners was organized for classes IV and V. Right Etiquettes on using spoons, forks and serviette were taught to the students. The right posture while eating was demonstrated to the students and how it equally helps in digestion made the students aware of the benefits of correct eating posture. The students enjoyed the workshop and were acquainted with the skill of laying the table properly.

Workshop on Personality Development

24th December, 2014: The 21st Century child is undoubtedly very confident and informed. To make them remember that it is very important to be grounded and well groomed as the current age demands, a workshop on 'Personality Development ' was conducted for classes IX and XI . The workshop ended on a positive note "sow an act and you reap a habit, sow few habits and you reap mannerisms, sow the mannerisms and you reap the body language.

Communication skill workshop

24th December, 2014: Communication has become the key word. In addition to interpersonal relations, ability to present with élan is crucial to the professional success. Keeping the significance of the effective communication skill, a workshop on the same was organized for students for class X. During the workshop, ways to boost the conversational ability of students and their self confidence were discussed as some major focal points.

Study skill brought to face workshop

24th December, 2014: A workshop on study skill by TOI was organized for the students of Class IX. Through this workshop children were explains about the 'Preteen phenomena – the first step towards the adulthood. Hence, the children should be aware of the conceptual transitions. Then the problems like lack of attention, weak concentration level and monotony while studying faced by students were discussed.

Intra Class Activity – Thematic Theatre - English Role Play

22nd December, 2014: An Intra Class Play Activity was conducted for all the students of Class VIII. Two groups from each section were selected to present the play. The play was based on a message giving theme and with humour and satire. The students used various props & banners to display their theme. Dialogue delivery, Voice Modulation and Use of Props were the criteria for Judgment.

SPECIAL ASSEMBLY – CLASS II A

19th December, 2014: Special Class assembly was conducted by students of class II A in which they raised the issue of Love and care for animals. Love for pet animals.... Save endangered species and protection of wildlife with Tigers... which was very well performed by the students behind the mask of animals.

Intra class Maths Activity – Class V

17th December, 2014: An Intra class Maths activity was organized for class V students. The students were given an activity sheet containing 10 questions (MCQ) which they were supposed to complete within the given time. Time & accuracy were the parameters of Judgment.

Intra Class Multimedia Gallery IT Quiz

16th December, 2014: 'HTML Quiz', for Class X was a platform that once again of being engaged in using Internet! This was one event that was thoroughly enjoyed by the audience, which participated in question – answer rounds especially created to keep them involved.

Intra Class Social Science Activity- Class IX - Role Play on Elections

12th December, 2014:- In this activity students of Class IX exhibited their acting skills and enacted scenes of election procedure, rigging in the elections, use of money & muscle power & need to reform the electoral system. The Students participated enthusiastically & enjoyed the performance of one another. It was a good platform for them to understand the importance & system of elections in India.

Intra Class S.St Activity – Class VIII

3 rd December, 2014:- Class VIII students participated in the "characters come alive enactment Personalities of the History" activity. The students were highly motivated and enacted in the different roles perfectly. Through this activity, students come to know about various historical personalities and their views on various topics. Shweta Tyagi had got the first Position; Ayushi Vats & Anupriya got the Second and thirs Position Respectively.

Creativity at its best

New Delhi, 5th December, 2014:- such was the mood at Annual Inter School Painting Competition on 'Kaleidoscope of HT PACE ' on December 5, 2015. Leela & Prathana of Class VI , Kalash of VIII & Kinchit of IX showcased their artistic dexterity in this competition. The students used a wide range of mediums like water colours, oil pastels to project their ideas of cleanliness through the theme of "Swachh Bharat" (Junior Category Topic). The seniors cast a spell on canvas deals with the theme of 'make in India'. The students received participation certificates and enjoyed a magic show at the lush green lawns of India Gate.

