

Street Play – Classes IX & X

New Delhi, 21st October, 2014:- Science Club students of Classes IX & X of Poorna Prajna enlightened the citizens of D-III, Vasant Kunj about the ill effects of pollution caused due to burning of crackers and importance of cleanliness through a street play.

Diwali Celebration week

New Delhi :- Diwali, the Festival of Lights was celebrated with fun and festivity. To celebrate the festival, the school organized a raft of competitions on the subject, "Say No To Crackers". On 14th October, a Collage Making competition was conducted for classes IX-X and a Card Making competition for classes III-IV. From the Junior Wing classes I and II participated in the Diya Decoration competition. A Poster Making and Slogan Writing competition was held on 17 October, for the students of class VI. On 18th October the students of class XI-Science visited Nirmal Jyothi, an Orphanage near the school. The students minimized their Diwali expenses and bought gifts for the inmates of the orphanage. Class V participated in a Poster Making competition held on 20th October. Classes VII and VIII participated in the Rangoli Making Competition held on 21st October. A special assembly also organized in which students of class XI Science, performed a street play on "Say Not to Crackers and Yes To Life". A special assembly conducted by the Primary School witnessed a dance performed by the students and enjoyed a song sung by the school choir. The Pre- Primary students brought in the Diwali festivities by lighting candles. The Diwali celebration ended with a Prize Distribution ceremony wherein the Winners were felicitated.

A Visit To an Orphanage

New Delhi, 18th October, 2014:- The students of class XI Science visited Nirmal Jyothi, an orphanage near the school. The students minimized their Diwali expenses and bought gifts for them. The orphanage houses 22 girls. All of them received food packets, toys and clothes gifted the students. The students decorated the orphanage with diyas and candles made by them. They interacted with the inmates and spent time with them. In the end handmade cards saying "Happy Diwali" were given. It was a very inspiring and motivating visit for our students. This was the best Diwali the Poorna Prajna children celebrated!

Eco – Club workshop – House Hold Waste Water Purification

New Delhi, 17th October, 2014:- The workshop was conducted on 17/10/2014 in the school seminar hall classes VIII abc participated. The workshop started with a presentation by Ms. Vandana from Uean India and was followed by poster making, movie show and a snake and ladder game based on water purification. To motivate the students' prizes were given by the NGO to the winners of the poster competition. Students participated enthusiastically in all the events.

Inter school Quiz Competition 'PARAMPARA'

New Delhi, 15th October, 2014:- Annual Inter-school Quiz Competition 'Parampara' for the students from standard IX to XII. The school witnessed a great turn-out of students from schools both in and outside the capital, like Gurgaon, Ghaziabad and Meerut. More than 54 schools participated in this mega fiesta.

The competition was one of its kind, not just because of its exciting new paraphernalia but also because it aimed at reviving and showcasing Indian culture and mythology, which, not many students on the contemporary scene are aware of.

The quiz, in the esteemed presence of The Poorna Prajna Management, was conducted by one of the most eminent and acclaimed Indian Quiz-masters, Mr. Kunal Savarkar and his efficient team of four.

Amongst the top six schools that qualified for the Final nail biting round after the hawk-eye like preliminary session were schools like D.P.S. R.K. Puram, St. Columbas, New Era, and N.K. Bargodia. The second, third and final rounds saw some interesting anagrams and pictorial questions, thrown not just at the students but also at the audience. The accompanying teachers too became a part of an impromptu quiz session.

The teachers, with their deep knowledge proved yet again why they are thought to be synonymous to 'gurus'. The teachers were also felicitated with trophies. The winning teams amongst the finalists were Ryan International, Noida which bagged a Cash Prize of Rs. 5000/- along with certificates. The second position was won by DPS R.K. Puram which received a Cash Prize of Rs. 3000/- and certificates.

The event culminated on a positive note with the School Chairman Shri H.L. Suresh felicitating the runners up with Certificates and Cash Prizes.

Class Assembly – Class IV

New Delhi, 14th October, 2014:- The month of October has been observed as cleanliness month. Joining the Prime Minister's campaign on cleanliness, Poorna Prajna Class IV in its special Assembly stressed upon the need to keep the country neat and clean. The Swachh Bharat Mission of the government of India was given a boost when the students participated in a school cleanliness programme. A skit was presented highlighting the need to inculcate values in our daily lives. The Assesmbly ended on a happy note with the children singing a song thanking god for everything and the need to be good and do good.

Gandhi Jayanti & Dussehra Celebrations in the Pre-Primary Section

New Delhi, 1st October, 2014:- The second of October, being a national holiday, Gandhi Jayanti was observed on the first day of October and Dussehra celebrations were also done by the tiny tots of Poorna Prajna. Students turned out dressed as Gandhi ji, the Father of the Nation. Students sang songs. A talk was given on Gandhiji and his principles.

